“ Charlie and I carpoled with friends to college for several years, and we were in high school together, He was so smart and basically taught our high school pre-calculus class. It has been years since I spoke with him, but hearing of his passing is deeply saddening to me. My sincere condolences to his loved ones. You will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I graduated high school with Charlie. He was always so smart, and funny, and kind. I hate to admit that the last day that I seen him was our graduation day. But have wondered about his life over the years. Prayers for his family and his sons.

“ I’m very sorry concerning Charlie’s passing. It’s been years since I’ve spoken with him but he was such a great guy when we went to school together. We took martial arts and participated in school activities together. He had a caring, special way about him and I’m deeply saddened to hear of his passing. Sending love and peace to his family.
