“ We miss you already pops, if there was ever anyone that tough me just how short life was it was you! You told me all the time it go by so quickly! You were rights! I hope your dancing in heaven walking around again pain free no worries or cares holding my babies watching over mom the boys helping them to stay strong! Losing you is really hard for everyone! Things happened so fast that we are still on disbelief but I know if anyone made it to heaven it be you your love for the lord was so strong! So even though none of got to say goodbye an be with in the end we all know that your an angel in the sky! Your closer to us more then ever, your the whisper in the wind the light in the stars the warmth of the sun! Until we meet again in heaven will will love an miss u ol man! We had tough times but in the end we always loved each other! Rest in peace
