“ I remember the Sunday afternoon that Dick & I almost didn't go visiting , because we both wanted to take a nap.
The Lord blessed our going to Mr. Ferguson, whom Walnut Hills Baptist prayed for, for so many years. Me. Ferguson accepted the Lord as his personal Saviour.
I remember the broadcast- “Studying the Scriptures” that he had on WEMM.
If you asked him to pray about something, he would say, “let's pray about it right now.
He said “WORK” is a dirty word in joking.

“ Where do I begin with the part I knew of this amazing mans life? What a great blessing he was to me. During my times of several surgeries, he was the visiting Pastor at Triad Bapt Church. When I would arrive at the hospital there he would be before I got there! I loved this man of God. I called him Mr. D. He became a wonderful friend to me. He was always picking on me and he loved to laugh and make you do the same. Last but not least, I loved to hear him pray! It was like heaven came down and you could almost visualize the Lord bending His ear to listen, as the bible says He does. The last time I was blessed to see him in the nursing home he still had his wonderful sense of humor and yes, he ended our visit and he prayed. He said when we ask him pray, "you may not understand everything I say" , we told him, the Lord will even if we do not. But, we did understand him and it was as beautiful as any pray he ever said. Heaven has gained a wonderful angel and he will be soarly missed! Love you Mr. D!!!

“ I will always remember his witty sense of humor and the love he showed towards me. He was a wonderful man of God and I am so glad I got to know him and his precious wife Angie.
You will be missed but I know I will see you again one day.

“ Dick, you were my brother in law, and my pinochle buddy, and my friend. I ll miss you till I see you on the other side, brother.

Requiem

Under the wide and starry sky
Dig the grave and let me lie.
Glad did I live and gladly die,
And I laid me down with a will.

This be the verse you grave for me;
Here he lies where he longed to be,
Home is the sailor, home from sea,
And the hunter home from the hill.

“ When I started my studies at The Bible Institute, I met a friend, teacher, mentor and lover of God and His word. Dick Lockhart was a true servant of God and a wonderful funny man. I was from Ohio, he was from West Virginia and we bantered back and forth over the song...Almost Heaven West Virginia, and I said said sure because Ohio is Heaven. Great memories, some day we will see each other again and the stories he will have to tell. You can STILL enjoy his class on Youtube!!!! RIP my teacher!!!

“ Dick was a true servant for the Lord and the furtherance of God's kingdom here on earth. He was so knowledgeable in the Word and it was written upon his heart. He preached God's Word continually and without reservation. I will always remember the day he came to pray with me and my then 5 year old daughter as she was preparing for tonsil/adenoid surgery. It was the first major surgery of her life and I really appreciated Dick taking of his time to come and join with us in prayer. That was over 10 years ago and I can still picture it to this day. On a sillier note, I will always remember him as we shared the same birthday 3/10! He will truly be missed until we see him again in heaven! You are in our prayers.

“ We knew Dick and Angie for many, many years and there was no doubt about his love for the Lord and for people. He was a great teacher and a wonderful friend. Many have commented on his sense of humor, and I would say "Amen" to that for sure. I used to joke with him that I had to divide by 16 everything he said, and yet I knew that his heart was in tune with God and so I could believe everything he said about His Saviour. Oh, how he will be missed, and this began when his health began to fail. What a homecoming he is enjoying in Heaven right now for "to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord." We'll see him soon and, at my age, it may not be long. He's already had a reunion with my husband Clarence. The last time I saw him in the hospital I was able to visit with Angie as well. My heart goes out to you, Angie. What a precious saint he was and is.
